Tell me why you want to continue the EHP class and what do you hope to achieve by being in the class. This needs to be 700 words. Newspaper students you may write an article for you essay. Webcasters if you have photoshop or a drawing program you may make four slides for a day plus 300 words. For the essay contest you can start a little research on Women's Suffrage.

Some classes will be two blocks a week and others will be one. You will not miss math or language arts class. You must attend class and if you have a band lesson you go to that and you will need to make up what you have missed in my class. If you "forget" to come to class three times then you will be asked to leave the class.

I understand that I will need to keep up with my class that I am missing for EHP, and I need to go to me teacher and get any work that I missed. If I have difficulty keeping up with the class that I have missed, then I will be asked to leave the EHP class. It is your responsibility to remember to come to your EHP class.

Information on the American History Essay Contest - We will meet once a week during the first and second quarter to work on the essay. I'm just giving you the topic so you can decide if you are interested. The finished essay will be 600 - 1000 words.

Topic for 2018-2019: The 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution was passed by the United State Congress on June 4, 1919, and was ratified on August 19, 1920. This amendment granted all American women the right to vote and hold elective office. Many American at the time viewed this as a radical change to the U.S. Constitution. Imagine you are living in 1919 while the women's suffrage campaigns were having impact on Americans politically and socially. Discuss the pros and cons of this new amendment the U.S. Congress has passed.
